

I strongly feel the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.
Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has remarkedly improved time at home with substantial decrease in the number of marketing phone calls.